PASTURES NEW

Congratulations to John Armstrong on his appointment as Australia's High Commissioner in London.

A well known figure in Tattersall's Club, John has typified another Pymont and Glebe boy making good. When filling in his Senate form he listed his occupation as "barman" but this did not preclude him from becoming a deputy leader of the Opposition in the Senate.

John was also a Federal Cabinet Minister, Lord Mayor of Sydney, is prominent in industrial circles and fond of all branches of sport.

His wife is a sister of Bernie Curran, and she will make a gracious partner in the social whirl of London.

It is safe to bet that John will carry his appreciation of the thoroughbred to the English race courses, and renew association with Scobie Breasley and the strong Australian flavour that pervades the English racing world.

SPECIAL MEETING

The special meeting for the confirmation or rejection of the motions and amendments resolved at the meeting of members held on 25th October, 1972, was convened on Monday, 27th November last.

All recommendations from the previous meeting including the deletion of Rule 37 were adopted.

Members were greatly impressed by the authoritative but genial manner in which both meetings were conducted by Chairman Geoff Eastment.

In appreciation of his capacity a vote of confidence and thanks moved by Bill McCredie was unanimously applauded.

QCs

Our congratulations to Tom Falkingham and Merv Finlay on their appointments as Queen's Counsel.

We always liked Tom's description by one of his University Club colleagues as being "an uncomplaining loser and an enthusiastic winner".

Merv will be recalled as having a spectacular career as a University Blue and later as an Olympic oarsman. He was a member of the Australian crew at the Olympic Games in Helsinki.

CASUAL CAR PARKING

MEMBERS ARE ADVISED THAT AS FROM 1st FEBRUARY, 1973, ADMISSION TO THE CAR PARK AT STOCKS AND HOLDINGS HOUSE, 181 CASTLEREAGH STREET, WILL BE BY SPECIAL TICKETS ONLY, WHICH MUST BE PURCHASED FOR 60c. EACH AT THE GENERAL OFFICE OF THE CLUB.

S.H.S.O.B.U.

It was like a reunion, dry of course, of Sydney Old Boys' Union in District Court No. 16, Queen's Square, recently.

Two former pupils on the Bench were addressed by another "old boy" watched by present deputy headmaster Arthur Cocking and a number of his fifth form students.

The occasion was the swearing in by District Court chairman Judge Staunton of George Hilary Smith, QC, as a District Court judge. George is a member of Tattersall's Club and is also ex-SHS.

The Commission for Judge Smith's appointment was signed by the Governor, Sir Roden Cutler, also a Sydney High Old Boy.

The school's Old Boys' Union was represented by its president, Judge Torrington. Former pupil, also a member, Harold Glass QC, spoke for the Bar Council.

SHEFFIELD TRADE MARK

Albert Sims was a guest at last year's 336th Cutlers' Feast held at Sheffield, England. With his wife Edna, Albert went to England for the event because the Master Cutler, Arnold Carr, not unknown in Sydney, is an old friend.

Since its inception more than three centuries ago, the Cutlers' Feast has steadily increased in size and importance until it is now one of the premier functions in the north of England. Cabinet ministers, ambassadors, and high ranking officers of the Armed Forces and other distinguished guests are invited. Usually 410 gentlemen sit down to the dinner.

There is also a Forfeit Feast, first held in 1814 and now an annual event. The title of the banquet arose from the fines extracted from members of the Cutlers' Company for non-attendance at company meetings.

Since 1883 ladies have been invited to dine with the gentlemen making the occasions much less formal than the Cutlers' Feast.

The history of the cutlery industry of Sheffield is bound indissolubly to that of this ancient company. It was founded in 1624 by an act of Parliament authorising control over all persons making knives, blades, scissors, shears, sickles and cutlery wares within a prescribed area.

In 1860 the constitution of the company was broadened to admit the manufacturers of steel, makers of saws and edge tools, and all other manufacturing articles requiring a cutting edge.

Sheffield is the natural centre of Hallamshire which because of the presence of millstone grit for grinding and abundant water facilitated the establishment and growth of the cutlery industry.

The principal duties of the company include the granting of Freedoms and Marks, the binding of apprentices, the regulation of the hours of work, and the pecuniary punishment of offenders for making or marking their wares contrary to the standards or rules. By granting these marks the company is able to control quality and maintain standards because the marks identify the manufacturers.

The company's area, covering some five hundred square miles, embraces the city of Sheffield and the industrial towns of Rotherham and Barnsley. The total population is about one million, and over one hundred thousand people are in employment in those industries covered by the constitution of the Cutlers' Company.

We are indebted to Albert Sims for this contribution to the significance of the authority covered by the Sheffield trade mark.

THOSE WHO HELP

The Minister for Social Welfare, Hon. John Waddy, recently appointed Stan Swaine, chief executive of the Royal NSW Institute for Deaf and Blind Children, as a member of the newly constituted consultative Council on the Handicapped. The term is for four years.

The Institution is also represented on the board by two other Tattersall's members, Vince Penzig and Stephen Varvaressos.

AMERICAN CLUB LIFE MEMBER

There have only been two life members of the American National Club and both have been Americans.

Beaumont Tudor (Beau) Sheil is now the first Australian life member.

It is the same Beau who worked closely with Sir Charles Kingsford Smith back in the 1930s.

Congratulations, Beau, on your distinguished attainment.

DINING, WINING AND DANCING

Congratulations to Claude and Irene Brelaz on their 53rd wedding anniversary. They celebrated on 9th December with a family gathering.

Bon voyage to Jeff Medworth who is going home to England for a visit after 21 years in Australia. There will be many family reunions, and of course some business. The party included his wife Beverley, the John Hargreaves, and other friends.

KIWI

Max Lawson certainly has the advantage over most of us in his auctioneering business by being able to select antique items for his personal use.

So it is that in the Club recently he was carrying a New Zealand carved Maori walking stick, embellished with six mother of pearls, indicating the eyes of the figures so beautifully sculptured in NZ wood.

Max said he had not seen a similar stick but had no doubt others were to be found in the land of the All Blacks.

BY JOSH

When Josh Ellis goes to the races he has no need to ask his way to the course because he was once a pupil at Randwick High. Leaving school he entered the jute business, and when war came Josh was with the engineers in the Islands.

On his return to civilian life, with his brother Moss, they established a hire business dealing with building equipment, power tools and similar industrial paraphernalia.

Josh is a foundation member of Randwick Lions Club and that club has just celebrated its 25th anniversary.

He is also a committeeman of Rose Bay Bowling Club, and soon will be

EPIC CRUISE

Laurence Le Guay recently completed a two year 35,000 mile round the world cruise in his 42ft steel yawl, Eclipse, pictured below.

With a crew of four including his 21 year old daughter, they sailed via the Barrier Reef, Darwin, Cocos, Mauritius and South Africa. From Capetown they took part in the first Cape to Rio race, which terminated with the Mardi Gras.

From Rio they sailed up the east coast of Brazil calling at many ports on the way. For six months they cruised slowly through the Caribbean staying for a while at all islands in the windward and leeward group and the Virgin Islands.

Laurie and his party spent last Christmas in Panama and then headed for home via the Galapagos, Marquesas, Tuamotus, French Polynesia and finally Tonga, Fiji and New Caledonia.

The voyage was almost completely trouble free and in 720 days they had only 23 in which the sun failed to shine and only twelve of force nine or more.

No one suffered any illness throughout the voyage, and Laurie recommends the holiday to any sailing minded members.

WE CERTIFY

When at St. Pat's, Strathfield, Kevin McCord played football with the first team. He says that St. Pat's won premierships prior to his playing with them and immediately afterwards, but sorrowfully not during his time.

As a Commonwealth audit officer he knows figures beyond the 36 etc., and spends his weekend playing social golf and tennis.

S.P.

Our post card and press clippings from Bill Aitkenhead were addressed from Mombasa, Kenya.

Appropriately he was present at the opening of the new racing season and a treble was won by Australian jockey Val Faggotter much to Bill's patriotic and pecuniary pleasure.

Bill forwarded us interesting particulars of his extended holiday - he was then 53 days "on the road" and only at the half way mark. He spent his 1972 birthday whilst on safari.

One cutting from the East Africa Standard was an ad for an SP betting shop. To those interested it is situated in Tom Mboya Street, Nairobi.

It stated: "We will be operating on Ngong races from our betting shop on Sunday, September 17, 1972. Office hours 10.30am - 12.30pm. Singles, doubles, trebles, quadruples, hit-the-pot, bingo, Yankee and forecast. Full accumulated odds laid on SP bet".

We emphasise that the address is Nairobi, East Africa.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

KEN RANGER

Tattersall's Club has numbered among its membership many amazing and dominant personalities of the bookmaking fraternity, and this situation prevails today and will, we confidently suggest, persist for all time.

One of the bookmaking giants of the past, and a regular attendant in our Club, is Ken Ranger.

He became interested in the complicated mathematics of making a book at an early age. He received his ARC mid-week St. Leger licence in the post depression years of racing. Money was scarce and competition intense.

In those days, towards the end of the thirties, small fielders were standing up at provincial tracks with less than $20 in their bags.

Ken gradually weaved his way up through the minor enclosures on to the major tracks to ultimately reach the rails at Randwick.

Then came the war and post war years with the great increase in tote and bookmakers' totals.

To his fellow members Ken was known as a quietly spoken man, impeccably dressed with an affection for bow ties.

On the rails at Randwick he was little changed — still quiet with an occasional nod to one of his wide circle of friends.

But the bets he called were often fantastic.

In the three seasons to 1951 he probably averaged more than $4m a year. And one pound in those days in comparison with $2 value today could be multiplied many times over.

And to think that within 15 years he had graduated from a humble $20 book.

In the racing year to 30th June, 1949, he held $4,470,000. In the 1949-50 season the total mounted to $4,690,000.

This turnover was equal to the combined annual turnovers of the 128 bookmakers in the St. Leger.

In the 1954-55 season his holdings were just short of $5m.

At one meeting at Canterbury the win and place totes totalled $184,000. Ken's were $192,000.

As any of his friends in the Club will tell you, Ken avoids personal publicity as far as he can. He rarely gives interviews and then restricts them to turf matters.

Yet in those days everything he did on a racecourse made news. Hundreds of enthralled punters used to cluster around his stand following their favourite pastime of "watching Ranger bet".

Their interest was a compliment but often an embarrassment as many times big bettors who preferred to whisper rather than shout their bets over the circle of heads would go elsewhere.

His colossal wagering entailed intense nervous strain but it was not reflected in his mannerisms. He was always neat and precise in reeling off to his clerk, Tom Winders, a string of bets which might total $100,000.

Tom is a well known identity in Tattersall's on settling days and vouches for Ken's courtesy and chivalry. The modest $1 punter receives the same attention as the $2,000 punter.

While still in his 40s, Ken retired from bookmaking in 1958.

In his retirement Ken was rarely seen at Randwick except for the "big" days, but in the past two years his appearances have been more frequent.

However, he has always had an ownership interest. His most recent winner was Recorded in July last, which he races in partnership with Mrs. John Vandenberg, wife of another Tattersall's member and also a retired bookmaker.

Other horses which Ken raced included Unrecorded (dam of Recorded), Cragman (second to Bernborough in the Stradbroke), Royal Feast, Illusionist, Levitator, Flash in the Pan and Spectator.

Ken's other sporting proclivities spread to playing pennant bowls with Double Bay, winning a Tattersall's Club billiards tournament and runner-up in a snooker event. He follows Rugby League football and retains his life long love of fishing at his many favourite spots.

And in the 32 years of Tattersall's Club membership from his humble start to his halcyon days, and now in his quieter moments of retirement, there is no nicer or better respected chap than Ken Ranger.

HANDBALL NOTES

by Arthur McCamley

ANNUAL PRIZE PRESENTATION NIGHT

Handball members gathered in the Sportsman's Room on Tuesday, 23rd November, following the competitions, to celebrate the season's activities and present the prizes to the winners.

Committeeman Jim Comans acted as host for the evening and did an excellent job. He welcomed Tattersall's Chairman Geoff Eastment and other important guests, and a most enjoyable evening was had by one and all. The prizes were handed out and some very good speeches were made by the winners and runners up.

Members assembled at the handball courts to watch the final of the Tattersall's Club Plate between Garry Stubbs and Ron Rogers, both of Clovelly Club. Ron proved to be too strong for Garry and won in straight sets. This is the second year in succession that he has won this prize, which is donated by Sid Kay and yours truly.

This event was inaugurated in 1971 and the competing clubs were Coogee, Bondi, Clovelly and Tattersall's. The news has passed on to other clubs and as a result we have been approached by North Sydney, Tamarama and Canterbury clubs for inclusion next year. It looks likely that handball will become a very popular sport.

Our club champion Michael O'Dea, mayor of North Sydney, has indicated that his council is to install two courts at the North Sydney heated Olympic pool.

Thus ended a most enjoyable year of handball. Our thanks must go to Norm Rogers, our energetic honorary secretary, and to Sam Block as handicapper. Between them they have issued the handicaps for next year, and these are now posted on the Club's notice board. We are looking forward to a successful season in 1973.

May I take this opportunity to extend to members of the Handball Club and Tattersall's Club best wishes for a happy and healthy new year.

Results:

Club Championship, donated by Bill Hannan, won by Michael O'Dea, runner up Bill Harrison.

A grade championship, donated by Bruce Partridge, won by Bill Sellen, runner up Ken Glass.

B grade championship, donated by Arthur McCamley, not yet completed. Winooka Trophy, donated by the estate of the late Joe Matthews, won by Peter Ashley, runner up John McGuire.

Good Idea trophy, donated by Arthur Browning, won by Michael O'Dea, runner up Robert Hill.

Most improved player, donated by Norm Rogers, won by John Barnes.

Getting the taste of his first royal occasion at the charity premiere of "Pope Joan" was Columbia Warner's new managing director Tom Nicholas. And he couldn't have wished for a more graceful welcome than he was given when presented to Princess Margaret at the Columbia Theatre, London, by the man he will succeed P.M. Williamson, (right).

MERRY CHAMPIONSHIP MEET AT MANLY

Champagne corks popped at the Golf Club's championship day in November.

Congratulations to our new champion Tom Crow who shot a par round. A fine effort, Tom.

B grade champion Bill Walker set the course on fire with a sizzling 77 — a score any A grader would be pleased to shoot.

C grade produced a smiling winner in the shape of Gordon Salier. Good to see him receive the prize.

Silver threads amongst the gold — Lou Carson with 73 was old enough and good enough (Lou plays off 6) to win the veteran's trophy.

Other winners were Peter Dind who won the long drive, Frank Agnew who was nearest the pin, and John Peoples who took out the Bradman.

John deserves special mention for double-double bogeys on four holes in his round.

Geoff Eastment, playing the 16th, was in so much trouble he had to drop a ball then proceeded to hit a fantastic shot that nestled against the pin. Geoff approached the green happily and more joy greeted him — the ball was in for a birdie!

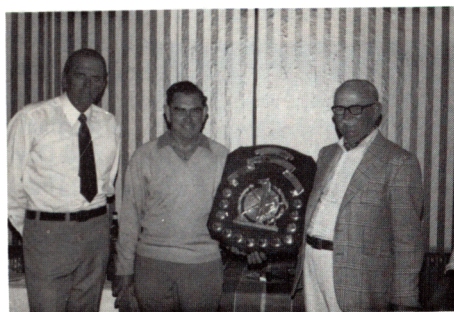

Kevin McCann, procurer of the champagne, helped Vic Vadas distribute the bubbly to lucky recipients.

Some of the Moss Vale group.

Wandering round the course and the club house I noticed Frank Agnew looking like the Red Shadow in his brilliant gear. Aussie Austin played better golf than his Pymble effort — it was his home track so his form would have to be better. Doug Cameron had a twinkle in his eye when he spoke of the trip to Moss Vale. Jim Coulson looked a little at sea without his special navigator air force mate.

Bruce Cox was happy with two under at the 12th but a seven at the 13th made him weep tears of blood. He will be back — you can't keep a good man down.

Saw Peter Dind hit a ball "a mile or two", and David Emanuel who is easier to beat on a golf course than in a swimming pool but still enjoys his game. Frank Fisher is never short of a word or a happy friend around him, and Rod Fisher, as always, really worked hard at his golf and had fun.

John Garrity had a bad day — not John's caper to pile up such a big score. Jim Grant played his usual great Grant golf. John Higson is being eagerly sought after as a partner for next season. Ken Humphery towered above Arthur O'Connor in size, but they both stand ten feet tall as club men.

I am sure all members join with me in wishing Doug Jackson a speedy recovery. At present he is fighting hepatitis, and father Sid tells us that he is winning. All the best, Doug, look forward to seeing you early in the New Year.

At the general meeting that followed the golf thanks from the golfing section were extended to Jan Banner for all the help she has given to the club during the year.

Members were delighted to see president Clare Higson with us again after a serious illness, and were most appreciative of his fine effort in chairing the annual meeting in his usual brief and efficient manner.

Ian Bell introduced Tattersall's Club Chairman Geoff Eastment who made the presentations. They were well in command as they conducted these important proceedings.

The retiring committee was re-elected unanimously, and they are:— president Clare Higson, hon. treasurer Vic Vadas, hon. secretary Ian Bell, and committee Allan Black, Phil Tresidder, Kevin McCann, Ken Humphery and yours truly.

GRAHAM STANFORD'S GRAND WIN IN NOVEMBER POINT SCORE

Christmas comes but once a year and the big event of the month is the Christmas Scramble. Full details will appear in next month's issue of TCM.

Star turn of the month was Graham Stanford's fine end of year performance. He turned in a commanding win in taking out his first point score with a total of 34 points, two less than the possible. That great old stager, Norm Rogers, dead heated with Mike Frawley for second place, 11 points astern. John Langsworth, Bill Orme, Michael McCormack, Jack Shaffran, Bill Rowe and David Dind were close up.

The month brings a new leader in the Native Son trophy in Gordon McGrath. He leads narrowly from Bill Orme with Roger Farrell and Norm Rogers equal in third place, followed closely by Russell Debney.

Some of the starters have been very flighty out of the barrier, with the result that several disqualifications for flying starts have been made. A timely word of warning and our check starter should find the boys becoming more docile out of the boxes.

There has never been such a bag of decreased handicaps as were notched by the Gestapo during November.

Those official sadists haven't stopped laughing — look at the tally. G. Stanford (2), B. Upcroft, N. Rogers, B. Cameron, D. Jackson J. McGuire, D. Dind, N. Amy, A. Hickey, K. Finn, I. Ross, J. Nicholas, W. Yewdall, T. Thompson and G. McGrath were all docked a second.

Some rather excellent winning times have been notched. R. Debney 19.2 and 19.5, M. Stening 20.1, W. Foster 20.1, M. McCormack 20.3, N. Rogers 20.6, W. Butchart 21.1, R. Jordon 21.2, I. Ross 21.2, J. Nicholas 21.9 secs.

Nice to see David Mitchell back with us again, and it won't be long before he registers a victory.

Congratulations to John Tuit whose charming wife presented him with another baby daughter. John has a couple of young lads who will eventually follow in the footsteps of Grandpa Perce and John as future Tattersall's members.

During our first month 85 contestants took part with a total number of entries 228, averaging 57 an event. During November we topped the poll with 90 members, 226 entries and an average of 57, and we feel sure that December will topple all records.

The club is very happy to welcome new members who will get quite a kick out of these weekly events. All they have to do to get into the

BOWLING NOTES

by Fred Empson

1972 SEASON CONCLUDES AT ROSE BAY

Another successful year concluded at Rose Bay late in December. Over 60 members were present, and also in attendance were the presidents of all the clubs visited by us during the year.

This is a day when everyone goes home with a Christmas trophy of some description, either a turkey, Scotch or champagne. We had a great day, and special thanks go to Rose Bay Bowling Club for their usual excellent catering.

At the conclusion of this day Ron Relton was presented with his prize for winning the singles. Congratulations, Ron.

It was good to see both Ron Storey and Jim Williams at Double Bay on 14th December. Ron, who has made a good recovery, was not fit enough to play but at his rate of progress he should be back with us in the very near future. Jim, after his short illness, is back bowling again and certainly gets no sympathy on his looks. Keep bowling Jim, it is a good remedy for all complaints.

The 1973 season opens at Double Bay on 11th January, and we look forward to a good attendance.

Results:

23rd November, Moore Park: W. Chamberlain, M. Greenberg.

30th November, Warringah: F. Porter, E. Davis, J. McKell.

7th December, City: S. Green, J. Whyte, H. Hill.

14th December, Double Bay: F. Porter, R. Darch, E. Davis.

Well, once again another year closes, and our president Dr. Fuzz Porter extends to one and all very best wishes for a happy and prosperous 1973.

For the benefit of Tattersall's Club members . . . . .
